

CITY OF FORT COLLINS, COLORADO

HOUSING MANAGER

Ft. Collins, Colorado (167,830). Fort Collins' Housing Manager is charged with advancing one of the City's top priorities to develop and implement the City's Housing Strategic Plan (slated for adoption in February 2021), which includes a draft vision that "Everyone has healthy, stable housing they can afford." This new position will forge relationships and collaborate with non-profit partners, City departments, and the development and real estate community to develop housing options that are achievable, sustainable and affordable. As an adaptive and strategic thinker, the Housing Manager will assimilate situations and data readily, pivoting as opportunities arise. The Housing Manager leads implementation with an interdisciplinary team of staff, facilitates a team of executives, and is expected to work with and cultivate a strong network of community stakeholders to quickly, and pragmatically, develop affordable housing solutions. As an organizational and community leader, the Housing Manager will implement the pathway through this complex issue, leveraging opportunities and prior accomplishments to strengthen housing options.

The ideal candidate must have a genuine desire to serve the community of Fort Collins and will seek strategic solutions using knowledge of housing best practices and propose new, dynamic approaches and techniques. Proven communication, interpersonal skills, demonstrated cultural competency, experience centering housing solutions in equity, and the ability to interrelate with a wide variety of people are all important qualities for the Housing Manager. Key success factors are the ability to lead change and garner support for a systems approach, new structures and strategies to ensure a sustainable and equitable living environment for all residents of Fort Collins.
