

Help Working Families

73% of those living in affordable homes are working, often more than one job. Those not working are elderly or disabled.